Consent to disclose substance use disorder records

For clinical supervision in Irvin. Use only when the provider has determined the client's SUD records are protected by 42 CFR Part 2.

A Client

Client name

DOB (optional)

B Disclosing program (from)

Program or practice

Counselor

Address

C Recipients (to)

Irvin Technologies, LLC, which provides the Irvin supervision platform, and the service providers it uses to run Irvin, including transcription and AI analysis. Also the people below, who review the records in Irvin:

Clinical supervisor

Program faculty, if the counselor is a student

D Information that may be disclosed

Part 2-protected SUD information contained in:

- audio or video recordings of your counseling sessions
- transcripts made from those recordings
- supervision feedback about those sessions, drafted by AI and reviewed by the supervisor

E Purpose

- Clinical supervision of the counselor's work with you
- Training of the counselor under a licensed supervisor

F Expiration

This consent ends on the date or event you choose:

☐ Date _____

☐ Event _____

For example: one year after signing, or the end of your treatment.

G Right to revoke

You may revoke this consent in writing at any time. Revoking it does not undo anything already done in reliance on it. Send written notice to:

Name, email or mailing address

H Important statements

1. Redisclosure. Information disclosed under this consent may be redisclosed by a recipient and may then no longer be protected by 42 CFR Part 2, except as federal law limits it.
2. Refusing to sign. You do not have to sign this form. Your provider will not deny you treatment because you refuse, except where the law permits. If you do not sign, these sessions will not be reviewed in Irvin.

I Signatures

Client

Name (printed) | Signature | Date

Personal representative, if signing for the client

Name (printed) | Signature | Relationship | Date

For the provider: any disclosure of Part 2 records made with this consent must be accompanied by the notice required by 42 CFR § 2.32.